Dubravko Lapaine is a Croatian-based didgeridoo musician and composer – one of the most revered didgeridoo performers in the world. He has been coherently developing new ways of playing. New definitions and fusion genres are needed to trace Lapaine's music – ancient trance, meditative experimental, power ambient, storytelling instrumental, ethereal Balkan minimalism, polyrhythmic acoustic chillout, earth&cosmic beat, heavy melodic drone, solo orchestral, and even spiritual space metal.

The workshop on Sunday is aimed to give good basics for all levels of playing. Pointing to some already known skills from a different angle, but also giving some completely new methods of approaching the didgeridoo.

Topics, roughly put in parts will be:

- How to form really rich and powerful drone and trumpet tones- where is the secret of the quality of the note?
- Basic motorics of didgeridoo playing- essential movements of the inner body for powerful and expressive playing- how to make difficult simple by the right movement?
- Didgeridoo orchestra- basics of parallel playing - how it is done?
- Exercises for strengthening body and extending control of didgeridoo playing- how to play what we really want to play and not what happens by accident?
- Open questions- what you couldn't have asked your mom and dad...or uncle...;-)

Es sind Leihinstrumente der Firma Drumparam vorhanden.

Inhaber Norbert Schmid bietet Djembes und Hempstone Didgeridoos aus eigener Produktion:
